1. Introduction

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with the organisations in a voluntary capacity, including Board Members.

Grow Education Partners Ltd, (Grow) are the 'Data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) is David Coy (see contact details below).

1.1 The Personal Data we process

Personal data that we may collect, use, store, and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not limited to:

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth, next of kin, dependents, marital status)
- Contact details (such as telephone number, email address, postal address, for you and your emergency contacts)
- Protected characteristics (such as trade union membership, nationality, language, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health and religion or belief, where this has been provided)
- Relevant medical information (such as physical or mental health conditions, including for any disabilities which the organisation needs to make any reasonable adjustments to fulfil its duty of care)
- Qualifications, and employment records (such as work history, job titles, references, training records and professional memberships)
- Outcomes of any disciplinary and/or grievance procedures, including any warning issues to you and related correspondence
- Board Member performance information (Such as meeting attendance, visits, roles, and leadership responsibilities)
- Information about business and pecuniary interests

- Equalities monitoring and reporting,
- Ensuring that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them,
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing,
- Responding to any school workforce issues

1.3 Our lawful basis for using this data

This section contains information about the legal basis that we are relying on when handling your information. These are defined under data protection legislation and for personally identifiable information are:

- Processing is necessary to fulfil a contract with you.
- You have given consent for one or more specific purposes.
- Processing is necessary to comply with the organisation's legal obligations.
- Processing is necessary to protect your vital interests.
- Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest.
- Processing is necessary for the school's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party.

When we process special category information, which is deemed to be more sensitive, the following lawful basis are used:

- You have given explicit consent.
- Employment, social security, and social protection
- It is necessary to fulfil the school's obligations or your obligations.
- It is necessary to protect your vital interests.
- Processing is carried out by a foundation or not-for-profit organisation (includes religious, political, or philosophical organisations and trade unions)
- Reasons of public interest around public health.

Where we have obtained consent to use personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent and explain how consent can be withdrawn

1.4 Collecting your personal data.

While most of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional. If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.

1.5 How we store your data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our Data Retention policy.

We retain personal information about all volunteers. This information is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the Grow. When your relationship with Grow has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with our Data Retention Schedule. A copy of this can be obtained by contacting the DPO (see contact details below).

1.6 Transferring Data Internationally

We may send your information to other countries where:

- we or a company we work with store information on computer servers based overseas; or
- we communicate with you when you are overseas.

We conduct due diligence on the companies we share data with and note whether they process data in the UK, EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland) or outside of the EEA.

The UK and countries in the EEA are obliged to adhere to the requirements of the GDPR and have equivalent legislation which confer the same level of protection to your personal data.

For organisations who process data outside the UK and EEA we will assess the circumstances of how this occurs and ensure there is no undue risk.

Additionally, we will assess if there are adequate legal provisions in place to transfer data outside of the UK

1.7 Who we share data with

In order for us to legally, effectively and efficiently function we are required to share data with appropriate third parties, including but not limited to:

- The Charity Commission
- Companies House
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as Trustee support and IT services.
- Training centres and awarding bodies-in order to share information and feedback on your performance.
- Your families and representatives- such as in the event of an emergency
- Our auditors to ensure compliance with our legal obligations.
- Trade Unions and Professional Associations - to enable them to provide the service their members require.

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

1.8 Data collection requirements

We are required to collect data on Grow Education Partners Ltd Board Members to comply with our legal obligations as a Charitable Company.

1.9 Individuals' Data Rights

Access Rights

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- NOT provide information where it compromises the privacy of others
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.
- You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

In most cases, we will respond to subject access requests within 1 month, as required under data protection legislation. However, we are able to extend this period by up to 2 months for complex requests or exceptional circumstances.

Your Other Rights regarding your Data:

You may:

- Withdraw your consent to processing at any time (This only relates to data for which the school relies on consent as a lawful basis for processing)
- Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of your personal data, or object to the processing of it in certain circumstances and where sufficient supporting evidence is supplied
- Prevent the use of your personal data for direct marketing
- Challenge processing which has been justified on the basis of public interest, official authority or legitimate interests.
- Request a copy of agreements under which your personal data is transferred outside of the United Kingdom.
- Object to decisions based solely on automated decision making or profiling (decisions taken with no human involvement, that might negatively affect you)
- Request a cease to any processing that is likely to cause damage or distress
- Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances
- Refer a complaint to the ICO
- Ask for your personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances)

If you would like to exercise any of the rights or requests listed above, please contact our DPO, David Coy

- Email: david.coy@london.anglican.org
- Phone: 020 3837 5145
- Address: Grow Education Partners, London Diocesan House, 36 Causton Street, London, SW1P 4AU

We will comply with the Data Protection legislation in regard to dealing with all data requests submitted in any format, but individuals are asked to preferably submit their request in written format to assist with comprehension.

We reserve the right to verify the requester's identity by asking for Photo ID. If this proves insufficient, then further ID may be required.

1.10 Data Protection Breaches

If you suspect that your or someone else's data has been subject to unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage, we ask that you please contact the DPO (see contact details below) and advise us without undue delay.

1.11 Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously. If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance. To make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO), David Coy (david.coy@london.anglican.org, 020 3837 5145).

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:
